“Witching Hour at the Tower” Pairs Rocky Horror with Live Acts MOSley WOtta and Staxx Brothers

Bend, OR – Hold on to your fishnets! This Saturday, October 27th, the Tower Theater kicks it up a few notches for their annual Halloween party with an all-night extravaganza of cult classic, live music acts by MOSley WOtta and Staxx Brothers, loads of costumes, and specialty libations by Oregon Spirit Distillers and 10 Barrel. Why sit at home with a slasher movie and a pumpkin pie when you can party like it’s 1999?

The party time triple-bill heads off to a rousing start at 9pm with the perennial favorite “Rocky Horror Picture Show.” The movie has maintained cult status since 1975 in no small part due to its legendary live audience participation – because where else can you dance, sing along, and shake your corset-clad bootie while throwing rice in unison with a celluloid cast? To aid in the devious fun, the Lava City Roller Dolls will sell bags of “dry” props (confetti, toast, toilet paper, cards), and teach the “Time Warp” dance - so you too can do “a bit of a mind flip, into the time slip.”

While in years past you had to dredge home after the last curtain fell on Frank-N- Furter, this All Hallow’s Eve, Rocky Horror is merely the warm-up for two supreme live acts: Bend’s multi-talented MOSley WOtta takes the Tower stage with his unique brand of rhythmic quick-lipped hip hop poetry, while band mate Stephanie Slade’s searing vocals give Tim Curry a run for his money. No less impolite and bold, Seattle’s Staxx Brothers then turn up the heat once more with their vintage funkadelic soul, for a hip-swinging good time until 2am.

Will all that dancing and singing get you thirsty? No doubt about it. But fear not - sponsors 10 Barrel are on hand to pour their well-known and delicious brews, while Oregon Spirit Distillers serve up their latest liquid creation —Wild Card Absinthe.

Tickets for this amazing evening won’t last, so get them now! General admission for the evening is $14. Attendees may come and go throughout the night, but all ticket holders must be 21 years or older.
